

THE NILE REPORT

Sat-ra Temple No. 59 • Daughters of the Nile

Greetings to you all!

What a summer we've had!! The old saying, how much can you squish into one week! Well Sat-ra did. We started August out with our regular session on August 7th, missed you if you weren't there. After session we conducted a ceremonial practice and onto getting organized for the next day, Sunday, which was our 8th Annual Kids Carnival!! Then on Monday, ceremonial practice and setup for the Supreme Queen visit and ceremonial! Tuesday, review the books with SQ Donna, hold a ceremonial, reset the room for a banquet, eat then cleanup! Whew!! What a fast and furious four days!

So let's talk a little about the Kids Carnival, I want to thank chair Kayla Blocklinger, committee members, Debbie Parks, Cassi Norton, LouAnn Stoffers, Serenna Russell and Karen Clopton, PQ. This committee worked long hours and it paid off, we had another successful carnival. Many thanks to Tangier's support for the donations of all the novelties, use of the building! Tangier Clowns, Keystone Kops, Provost, Director's Staff, Mobile Nobles and youth groups Bethel #18, Athena #24, DeMolay Boys! AND ALL the members of Sat-ra that worked, donated or just supported the event! Thank you. I know all the smiling faces on all those kids was reward enough!

The Supreme Queen's visit was a top ten days of Nile! The officers received compliments from all the visitors, "Job well done", "Your officers portrayed their characters to the tee", "Ritual work was spot on" and from the Supreme Queen, "Sat-ra demonstrated a top notch, very moving and exciting ceremonial, Exceptional work by everyone" She said she will remember Sat-ra and how warm and welcome she felt there! Doesn't get any better! I commend you all!!!

We initiated 6 new princesses that day, please join me in welcoming: Ex. Candidate Elizabeth Schmidt, Suzanne Krishna, Emily Pool, Michelle Provost and Wendy McMinn! I hope you enjoyed your day and that you will attend sessions as you can. Check out the Patrol and Pageantry Dancers, they are always looking for ladies to join them.

Our next event coming up will be our Fall Dinner, Schedule for Sunday, October 24th from 11:00am – 2:00pm, lower level of Tangier Shrine Center. Cost is $15.00 per person. ## Pageantry and Dancers

I hope you saw them! Four of the dancers from Pageantry and Dancers entertained the Supreme Queen, our Queen Angie, our new members and all guests on August 10th. They had a very fun dance with a surprise ending for Queen Angie. Penguins!

The Pageantry and Dancers are a very fun group of ladies and we invite you to join us. You don't even have to dance.

We meet on the Monday before sessions, at 5:45 in the card room at Tangier. Please come join us.

American Flag Drawing

Sat-ra has received an American Flag that was flown over the United States Capitol Building and will be giving it away to one lucky member. This is a 4' x 6' American Flag. It is accompanied by a Certificate of Authenticity.

When you attend session, remember to put your name into the drawing for the American Flag that was flown over the United States Capitol Building. Every member that is current on their dues can enter the drawing.

Flag will be given away at the December Session meeting.

Spread the Joy and Fly the American Flag!

Are you going to Dallas for Supreme Session 2022?

Per Supreme Temple Bylaws: Each subordinate temple will be allowed to have up to (5) Ladies of the Household Delegate. LOH Delegate will have voting rights at the Supreme Session she attends.

A letter requesting to be a LOH Delegate is to be submitted in writing to Pr. Recorder before the March Session in 2022 for the Supreme Session to be held in June of 2022. Simple wording, just need to say something like "I wish to be considered one of the 5 LOH Delegates to attend Supreme Session in June 2022. The SS registration is paid for by Sat-ra.

Top Ten Reasons to be a Good Friend

1. A Good Friend Helps You Feel Less Lonely – A good friend reflects life back to you and with all the things you have in common, being alone doesn't feel as lonely.
2. A Good Friend Reduces Stress – Being with or talking to a good friend can calm you down and reduce the stress you feel. By being able to bounce thoughts and ideas off them, you feel more peace about yourself and your place in the world.
3. A Good Friend Is Trustworthy – Being able to trust someone is a valuable gift and brings peace into your life. A good friend would never betray the trust you have in them.
4. A Good Friend Provides A Reality Check – If you begin to act like a crazy person, a good friend will pull you back down to Earth in a heartbeat.
5. A Good Friend Is Loyal – a good friend will be loyal to you. They will defend you and tell everyone that you are the greatest without even blinking.
6. A Good Friend Is Fun And You Laugh Often Together – Being with or talking to your good friend is fun and you both laugh often together. Not only do you laugh, but you laugh until your sides hurt and tears are pouring out of your eyes. Yes, having a good friend is a fun experience.
7. A Good Friend Likes The Real You – You don't have to have your makeup on, hair perfect or suck in your stomach when you're with your best friend because they totally accept you, the real you. They know what matters is on the inside and not all the superficial stuff on the outside.
8. A Good Friend Is Honest – Yes, a good friend is honest with you at all times and you can count on their honesty because it isn't an attack to your character.
9. A Good Friend Increases Happiness – Having a good friend adds happiness to your life. A friendship is a positive relationship that adds great value to your life. A good friend doesn't argue with you all the time, betray your trust, disrespects you or hurts you in any way.
10. A Good Friend Improves Your Mental Health – It is true that a good friend improves your mental health because you feel understood, loved and not alone. Those feelings inspire peace in your life, within your soul and in your mind.
